

Mayor of Homestead Receives Official Welcome from The Palace Gardens

The Palace Gardens recently rolled out the red carpet for newly elected City of Homestead Mayor, Steve Bateman during a special brunch held in his honor at the assisted living community.

General Manager Josh Cabrera and Director of Sales & Marketing Elizabeth Martinez officially welcomed Mayor Bateman, who spoke of his fondness for the community and the quality care his mother received while a resident there.

Homestead VIPs including Vice Mayor Judy Waldman, Major Scott Kennedy and the City Council joined approximately 50 local seniors in celebrating the mayor.

“The Palace Gardens has always worked closely with the City of Homestead,” said Martinez. “This was our way of welcoming Mayor Bateman and showing our continued support.”
