

The Palace Receives National Recognition

MIAMI—For the second year in a row, U.S. News & World Report, the prestigious news and consumer magazine, has ranked The Palace Nursing & Rehabilitation Center in Kendall as one of the top nursing homes in Miami-Dade County.

Owned and operated by The Palace Management Group, one of South Florida's leading companies specializing in senior housing and care, the community received five stars in the Overall Rating category.

The report, "America's Best Nursing Homes", was created by U.S. News & World Report to help the families and friends of the 3.2 million Americans that will spend at least some time in a nursing home.

The Palace Nursing & Rehabilitation Center also received five stars in the health inspections and quality measures categories and four stars in nurse staffing.

Additionally, The Palace's Medicare-certified home health agency, The Palace at Home, was recently named one of the Top 100 Home Health Care Agencies in the U.S. This marks the 4th time the agency, which operates in Miami-Dade and Broward counties, has been recognized.

The list, known as HomeCare Elite, is a compilation of the most successful Medicare-certified home health care providers. The annual review identifies the top 25 percent of agencies and is ranked by an analysis of performance measures in quality outcomes, improvement and financial performance.

"We're honored to continue our tradition of providing quality care and exceptional customer service," said Palace President Helen Shaham. "These awards are a testament to the hard work and dedication of the entire Palace team."

The Palace's continuum of care also includes The Palace Suites, a luxurious independent living community; The Palace Royale, a "catered living" community; The Palace Renaissance, an assisted living community; The Palace Gardens, an assisted living community in Homestead; The Palace at Weston, luxury living for those 55 and over; and Palace Tel-Aviv, a continuing care retirement community in Israel. Their two newest projects, The Palace at Weston Senior Living and The Palace at Coral Gables, are under development.
