

COMMUNITY

READ TO ME

Jerry Mazursky reads to pre-kindergarten students at the Primrose School of Miramar. Residents from The Palace at Weston assisted living community visited the school for Adopt-a-Grandparent day. "The Adopt-a-Grandparent Day (officially Sept.10) was started in 2014 to recognize and honor the lives of the elderly in our society. Statistics show 50% of nursing home residents have no close relatives, 46% have no living children and 60% have no outside visitors. By interacting with young school children, many of whom may not have grandparents nearby, we create a nurturing experience that's a win-win for both generations," Omar Urbay, director of activities at The Palace, said in a statement.

READ TO ME

Residents from The Palace at Weston assisted living community visited pre-kindergarten students at the Primrose School of Miramar for Adopt-a-Grandparent day. “The Adopt-a-Grandparent Day (officially Sept. 10) was started in 2014 to recognize and honor the lives of the elderly in our society. Statistics show 50% of nursing home residents have no close relatives, 46% have no living children and 60% have no outside visitors. By interacting with young school children, many of whom may not have grandparents nearby, we create a nurturing experience that’s a win-win for both generations,” Omar Urbay, director of activities at The Palace, said in a statement.

Helene Fleisher, left, and Evelyn Kronen along with pre-kindergarten students at the Primrose School of Miramar. JOE CAVARETTA PHOTOS/SUN SENTINEL

From left, Dr. Sylvia Norton, Helene Fleisher and Evelyn Kronen during the visit with pre-kindergarten students at the Primrose School of Miramar.