Welcome to May!

A warm welcome to our new residents —
we're glad you're here!

Join us for a Mother's Day celebration on May 3rd at 11:30 AM as we honor the wonderful mothers in our community. Don't miss our festive Cinco de Mayo Happy Hour for fun and refreshments.

We also take time this month to remember and honor those who served our country on Memorial Day.

We look forward to celebrating together!
With love,
Mackenzie McAlister

Harper Lee and the Enduring Legacy of To Kill a Mockingbird

Join us as we celebrate a groundbreaking novel not only reshaped American literature but also confronted the racial and moral challenges of its time with honesty and grace.

Together, we'll trace Harper Lee's personal journey, explore her storytelling craft, and consider how the world of Maycomb reflects the realities of the Jim Crow South. We'll also look at the novel's lasting influence on the Civil Rights Movement and its continued relevance in today's conversations about justice and empathy.

Through engaging discussion, close reading, and interactive activities, we'll revisit the novel's unforgettable characters and moral questions—discovering why To Kill a Mockingbird remains one of the most powerful stories ever told.

The Leiden Collection, Art & Life in Rembrandt's Time / Part 2

The Dutch Golden Age, was a period of immense religious and cultural upheaval. Artists like Rembrandt van Rijn developed and mastered a style that utilized light and realism in a way that had never been seen before. They broke from aristocratic norms, depicting ordinary men and women from all walks of life with the same dignity and attention to detail once reserved for kings and biblical scenes.

Oscar Wilde: A Life of Wit and Wisdom

Join us to explore the dazzling life of Oscar Wilde—his wit, fame, celebrated works, and the scandal that changed his life. This class traces his rise, relationships, and lasting impact on art and individuality.

Part of Life and Times of Literary Favorites with Lauren Radick, a series highlighting iconic writers like Agatha Christie, F. Scott Fitzgerald, and Sir Arthur Conan Doyle.

Lecturer: Lauren Radick, M.Ed

Dirtiest Election Ever: How Jefferson vs. Adams in 1800 set the stage for today's political shenanigans

The familiar elements were there, political operatives, surrogates, partisan media, divided populace, high ideals and low behavior, and serious economic and national security issues. When Thomas Jefferson, Democratic Republican, squared off against John Adams, Federalist, the gloves were off, and this was as raw and dirty as our politics can get. Aaron Burr set about capturing New York for the Democratic Republicans, while Adams was the first to hit the campaign trail. Learn how our rough-and-tumble presidential elections began and the deep roots of our sometimes dysfunctional, but always enduring, search for liberty.

Lecturer: Rebecca Staton-Reinstein, Ph.D.
